In full view of thousands who were at Golden Spur park Sunday after-noon, Walter Dennison, proprietor of the Golden Spur inn, plunged into the Niantic riser and rescued Miss Mary Brown of Jersey City from drowning. The crowd had been listening to a bund concert, when it was interrupted by Miss Brown's screams for help. Mr. Dennison dove into the water without waiting to remove any of his clothing, and only succeeded in bringing the young woman to shore after quite a struggle. When he carried her safely to shore the crowd cheered him to the echo and the band played "Hall te the Chief."

There was a good attendance Sunday evening at the last Y. P. S. C. E. service to be held on Meeting House Rocks this season. The missionary committee was in charge, and many interesting facts regarding seamen were given. In Bethels on shore inva-lids are cared for, there are reading rooms and places where letters are written and received, and those ship-wrecked are fitted out anew. In the meetings held there are many requests for prayers. The Christian religion has nced seamen to give up drink. Floating societies of C. E. were men-tioned. Dr. Grenfell's wor kin Labrafor was spoken of by several, song service was inspiring.
